New Items in the Shop

The much anticipated first book by Jared Flood, Made in Brooklyn, has arrived. Designed exclusively for Classic Elite yarns – this is a must have book. Classic, beautiful designs.

I've added new yarns by Tahki Stacy Charles. Montana, a chunky, undyed wool roving, is lovely and soft. Come check out the wrap on display, made with this yummy yarn. Also by Tahki, I have Dove and Savoy. Silk, wool and alpaca blends all in a striking color palette.

Spud & Chloe – the new yarn by Blue Sky

Alpacas has made a great splash in the shop! All yarns are organic, machine washable natural fibers. Wonderful patterns – I have the sock yarn and the bulky Outer Yarn.....Coming soon Spud & Chloe Sweater (worsted weight cotton/wool)

Upcoming Events – 2010 Knit-A-Longs

We will be doing “Wrap Me Up “by Knitting At Knoon. This will be an ongoing knit-a-long. There are 21 blocks to make – you will learn many new techniques including modular knitting, applied I-cords, and knitting with beads. Stop in for details!

Shine A Light on Small Business.....

I have been nominated by one of my dear customers in a contest for small business owners. Please help me qualify for this contest by endorsing the nomination. I need 50 endorsements to qualify. Follow the link below (you have to hit "control" and then click on the link or copy and paste into your browser) to the endorsement. To endorse the story they ask you to register with your name and email address. This prevents people from endorsing themselves 50 times.

For those of you who have already endorsed me – THANK YOU! I'm so close, I just need a few more. Let's rally those husbands, boyfriends, girlfriends, partners, friends, and relatives and give my little shop a chance to compete against the big guys!

I really appreciate the support – and let's all do our part to keep small businesses in business ☺
